

3rd Place Winner - Missouri
Samantha
St. Joseph's - Wentzville

2009 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest

"There are a couple of reasons why I chose this design. I drew stars to represent the children shining brightly. I drew the Earth because that is our home. I drew faces because those are the missing children reuniting with their family. I drew a cross because Jesus is depending on you!"

